

washington regional association of grantmakers

dc md va

Loudoun County Philanthropy Conference

Thursday, May 14, 2015

10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Middleburg Community Center
300 W. Washington St | Middleburg, VA 20118

Join philanthropic, nonprofit, government, and community leaders to learn about the needs in Loudoun County and explore strategies for addressing those needs.

THANKS TO OUR CONFERENCE SPONSORS!

AGENDA

Morning Session (open to all)

9:30 am Arrival & Networking (coffee provided)

10:00 am An Overview of the Needs & Opportunities in Loudoun County

Key note address by Michael Cassidy, President & CEO, The Commonwealth Institute for Fiscal Analysis

Respondent panel representing the philanthropic, nonprofit and government sectors:

- Lynn Tadlock, Claude Moore Charitable Foundation (philanthropy)
- Jennifer Montgomery, Executive Director, Loudoun Interfaith Relief (nonprofit)
- Julie Grandfield, Assistant County Administrator (government)

11:30 am Break

Afternoon Session (funders only)

12:00 pm Funders' Networking Lunch: Exploring Opportunities for Investments

At this structured networking lunch, grantmakers interested in supporting Loudoun County will have the opportunity to connect with their funding colleagues, discuss issues of shared interest such as affordable housing, education, health and the environment, and explore individual and collaborative funding strategies for addressing county needs.

2:30 pm Adjourn