

Nonprofit Summer Learning Series

by Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers

Invaluable insider information on philanthropic trends and local funders!

Designed and taught by some of the Greater Washington region's top philanthropic leaders, WRAG's Nonprofit Summer Learning Series "pulls the curtain back on philanthropy" for the nonprofit community. Join WRAG and our sponsor, Booz Allen Hamilton, as we shed light on how grantmakers think, how they approach their work, what they look for in strong nonprofit partners, and how you can build new and stronger relationships with the local funding community.

SESSION 1: Transparency, Authenticity, and Honest Feedback - The Path to True Partnerships

June 22, 2018 from 8:30 am - 11:00 am

Booz Allen Hamilton, 8283 Greensboro Drive, McLean, VA

(also available via webcast)

REGISTER ONLINE

Hear directly from some of our region's top grantmaking professionals as they discuss how to overcome perceived power imbalances, develop meaningful relationships, and position yourself as a trusted resource and partner.

SESSION 2: Today's Funders are Looking to Invest in Solutions NOT Organizations

July 11, 2018 from 8:30 am - 11:00 am

Booz Allen Hamilton, 8283 Greensboro Drive, McLean, VA
(also available via webcast)

REGISTER ONLINE

Join us to hear from some of our region's top funders as they discuss this important shift in philanthropic strategy, what it means for you as a nonprofit leader, and how your organization can leverage this knowledge to partner with the funding community to improve the quality of life in our region.

Putting Racism on the Table

SESSION 3: Philanthropy's Interest in Racial Equity and What it Could Mean for the Nonprofit Community

August 8, 2018 from 8:30 am - 11:00 am

Booz Allen Hamilton, 8283 Greensboro Drive, McLean, VA
(also available via webcast)

REGISTER ONLINE

Hear directly from some of the philanthropic leaders who are leading the racial equity charge in our region. Learn what funders' shared understanding of racial equity means for their organizations and their funding strategies and how this could effect the local nonprofit community and the populations you serve.

Thanks to our sponsor!

Booz | Allen | Hamilton