Session Two
Topic: White Privilege
Speaker: Robin DiAngelo
Former Professor of Education and author of What Does it Mean to be White?

2:20.....I’m white.

2:50.....You can shop at Whole Foods and drive a Prius and not understand white privilege.

7:00.....“The way you will hear what I say today will be shaped by the fact that I’m white.”

7:20.....“The master’s tools will never dismantle the master’s house.”

9:45.....Notice a contradiction here? “My neighborhood growing up was all white. I was taught that skin does not matter.”

15:00.....Prejudice ≠ Discrimination ≠Racism

15:30.....Prejudice: “Everybody has it, everybody does it.”

19:00.....Individual vs institutional oppression.

21:00.....Women’s suffrage reveals how power and privilege work.

27:00.....What happens when the dominant group’s experience stands in for everyone’s experience.

31:00.....Get rid of the “Good/Bad binary” of racism.

33:10.....Dominant white racial narratives: “Race doesn’t have any meaning to me.” “I work in a diverse environment.”

41:10.....What’s propping these narratives up? Segregation.

46:00.....The impact of white teachers from kindergarten through grad school.

50:50.....You can’t ignore the ubiquitous message of white as ideal.
53:40.....Only white people can say, “I was born into a culture in which I belong.”

57:20.....“The most powerful way that white people are shaped by their race is that they can live and die in racial segregation and not feel that they have lost anything.”

1:01:25.....White Fragility: Why white people can’t handle conversations about racism.

1:05:15.....How white people can begin to dismantle the system of white privilege.
